

Booking Rules

You must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 to enter either of our lodges.

Our lodges are for recreational use by our members and guests and may not be used for accommodation for seasonal work, except for a resident caretaker.

- The Lodge Captain will require each person staying in either Lodge to produce acceptable photo ID, such as Drivers' Licence etc, at the beginning of their stay.

Lodge Entry

- Entry to both Lodges is by coded access only (no key needed). Persons using either Lodge will need to obtain the current door code to enter the Lodge. These codes are obtained from the Booking Officer and should be sent out by email just before your stay.

The “Bunk Room” at Gundaroo Lodge at Jindabyne

- Please note: The bunkroom (4 double bunks) is not segregated. This means that females and males may be required to share the room and facilities. Others accommodated in the room may not be known to you.
- The door to the bunkroom is not lockable, so if you are bringing valuables with you that need to stay in the lodge, you will need to bring your own padlock to secure the lockers provided.
- The bunks in the Bunk Room are numbered. When you booked, you booked a specific bunk and must not occupy a different bunk. Bunks are identified as upper and lower in the Booking System.

The “Family Room” at Gundaroo Lodge at Jindabyne

- When booking, the minimum number of persons at the time of booking is 5. A smaller number of occupiers may be accepted 14 days prior to occupation.

Dates Applicable to winter (Peak and Off-Peak) Accommodation Rates

- Accommodation during the ski season will commence on the First of June, and the special winter ski season booking procedures and rates apply from then until the end of the October.
- Peak Winter Rates apply from 1 July to 31 August (inclusive) each year.
- Winter Off Peak Rates apply to the remaining winter period.

Dates Applicable to Summer Accommodation Rates

- Bookings made outside the above winter season dates, and prior to the commencement of the next ski season, will be charged at “Summer Rates”.
